With the Services

Aviation Cadets James G. Welch, son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Welch, of 429 Twenty-seventh street, and William H. M. Varick, of 314 Thirty-second street, have completed their training at the basic flying school at College Park, Maryland, and have been transferred to an advanced school for the final period of their pilot training.

Russell R. Similarly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred A. Similar, of 314 Thirty-second street, has completed his training at the basic flying school at College Park, Maryland, and has been transferred to an advanced school for the final period of his pilot training.

With the Services

Corporal J. H. Hill, of 314 Thirty-second street, has completed his training at the basic flying school at College Park, Maryland, and has been transferred to an advanced school for the final period of his pilot training.

Russell R. Similar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred A. Similar, of 314 Thirty-second street, has completed his training at the basic flying school at College Park, Maryland, and has been transferred to an advanced school for the final period of his pilot training.

Sgt. H. G. H. Smith, of 314 Thirty-second street, has completed his training at the basic flying school at College Park, Maryland, and has been transferred to an advanced school for the final period of his pilot training.

With the Services

Sgt. H. G. H. Smith, of 314 Thirty-second street, has completed his training at the basic flying school at College Park, Maryland, and has been transferred to an advanced school for the final period of his pilot training.

With the Services

Sgt. H. G. H. Smith, of 314 Thirty-second street, has completed his training at the basic flying school at College Park, Maryland, and has been transferred to an advanced school for the final period of his pilot training.

Soldiers Give $281.45 for Soldiers' Smokes

Desiring to do something in earnest the right of combat duty for their beloved country, the officers and men of the D.H. A. of the United States Marine Corps, on board the U.S.S. Arizona, have donated $281.45 for the Soldiers' Smokes Fund. The sum was presented by Capt. Milton G. W. Wood, commanding officer of the unit, who declared his contribution to be the last.
With The Services

Donald Vix

Clide L. Kelluff, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kelluff, of Main Street, Tarawa, has been commissioned a second lieutenant in the United States Army Air Corps. He was a student at the Kansas State College in Manhattan, Kansas, where he was a member of the Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Private First Class Clide L. Kelluff was graduated in June from the University of Kansas with a degree in mechanical engineering. He is a native of Tarawa and has been a member of the 7th Infantry Division since it was organized in 1941.

P bulky Glasston, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glasston, of Brooklyn, N.Y., has been commissioned a second lieutenant in the United States Army Air Corps. He was graduated from the Brooklyn Technical High School in 1941 and has served in the service since that time.

Private First Class Cass, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cass, of Main Street, Tarawa, has been commissioned a second lieutenant in the United States Army Air Corps. He was graduated from the University of Kansas in 1941 and has served in the service since that time.

Private First Class Cass was graduated from the University of Kansas with a degree in mechanical engineering. He is a native of Tarawa and has been a member of the 7th Infantry Division since it was organized in 1941.

Private First Class Cass was graduated from the University of Kansas with a degree in mechanical engineering. He is a native of Tarawa and has been a member of the 7th Infantry Division since it was organized in 1941.

Private First Class Cass was graduated from the University of Kansas with a degree in mechanical engineering. He is a native of Tarawa and has been a member of the 7th Infantry Division since it was organized in 1941.

Private First Class Cass was graduated from the University of Kansas with a degree in mechanical engineering. He is a native of Tarawa and has been a member of the 7th Infantry Division since it was organized in 1941.

Private First Class Cass was graduated from the University of Kansas with a degree in mechanical engineering. He is a native of Tarawa and has been a member of the 7th Infantry Division since it was organized in 1941.

Private First Class Cass was graduated from the University of Kansas with a degree in mechanical engineering. He is a native of Tarawa and has been a member of the 7th Infantry Division since it was organized in 1941.

Private First Class Cass was graduated from the University of Kansas with a degree in mechanical engineering. He is a native of Tarawa and has been a member of the 7th Infantry Division since it was organized in 1941.
With The Services

By Phillip Wolfe

After completing 92 missions over enemy-held territory, during which time he was credited with officially shooting down a Messerschmitt Me-109, and with three other probable "kills," Private Harry Joseph Philip Weinert, of Mrs. M. C. Rogers, of 26 East Pearl Street, has been commissioned a second lieutenant in the United States Army Air Forces. He was commissioned at Gowen Field, Idaho, in the 112th Bombardment Group, 337th Bombardment Squadron.

Peter R. Skinner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Skinner, of 437 Pearl Street, has arrived at the Army Air Force Technical Training Command Station at Greensboro, N.C., as a second lieutenant. He was commissioned on May 16, 1944, at Bowman Field, Kentucky, in the 106th Bombardment Group, 31st Bombardment Squadron, the 2nd Bombardment Wing.

Herman Cooper, son of Mrs. Edith Cooper, of 437 Pearl Street, has arrived at the rank of staff sergeant with the United States Army at Roles, Maine. He is stationed at Gowen Field in that city.

Peter Stroman, son of Mrs. Estelle Stroman and brother of Mrs. Galen Stroman, of 63 High Street, has recently been aviated to the rank of sergeant in the United States Air Force. He is stationed in Germany.

Promoted—Charles A. DeLarco, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. DeLarco, of 637 Macombs Street, has been commissioned a second lieutenant in the 112th Bombardment Group, 337th Bombardment Squadron, the 112th Bombardment Wing. He was commissioned at Bowman Field, Kentucky, in the 112th Bombardment Group, 337th Bombardment Squadron, the 112th Bombardment Wing.

A graduate of Niagara university, he was employed by the Buford Electrochemical company, entering the service in 1942. His wife, Dorothy, resides at 711 Spruce Street, Buffalo.

In Combat Only Four Days, Killed

Private Thomas Willmott, 21, was killed in action in Germany on January 18, four days after enlisting in the 112th Bombardment Group, 337th Bombardment Squadron, the 112th Bombardment Wing, in the United States Army Air Forces. He was the son of two small children, Mr. and Mrs. Willmott.

Mrs. Willmott received a letter from her husband seven times ago. It was written January 23 and reached the front line, just over the German border, near a small town. The letter was written in German.

Private Willmott was a graduate of the state high school and was employed by the Willmott company, a family-owned business. Besides his wife and two sons, Private Willmott is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Willmott, of 437 Pearl Street, and three brothers, James, Donald, and W. W. Willmott, all of this city.